

They're on the job

FOOTSCRAY has a new recruitment, training and employment service. Job Prospects, a division of the Service to Youth Council, offers support for young job-seekers and employers.

Chief executive Paul Edginton said the Footscray branch of the service would help local people find work with local employers – “a win-win situation for Footscray”.

Job Prospects is at level 1, 109-111 Nicholson Street. Details: www.jobprospects.com.au or call 9689 1715.
